

PARISH CHILD SAFEGUARDING POLICY

The parish of St. Luke the Evangelist values and encourages the participation of children and young people in parish liturgies and parish activities in order to enhance their spiritual, physical, emotional, intellectual and social development.

We recognise the dignity and rights of all children and are committed to ensuring their protection from all forms of abuse.

This commitment is binding on all priests, employees and volunteers who work in our parish. It extends to the many and varied ways that children share in the life of the Church in our parish.

The parish works in partnership with the HSE and An Garda Síochána in all matters pertaining to the safe guarding of children. If you have a concern about child abuse you should contact:

MASS FOR PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS

Next Sunday 24th February 12 o'clock mass will be offered for those who suffer through warfare and violence throughout the world. We are delighted to be joined by the Papal Orders of Ireland as we celebrate this special mass. Tea/coffee will be served after all masses as it is the last weekend of the month.

How did we get here?

What has Jesus got to do with me?

NUA PROGRAMME

When we want information on any subject we go to Google or some other search engine; but what about the important questions of faith that the Googles of this world can't answer?

Have you ever asked yourself the big questions, or been challenged about the hard questions by inquisitive young people? Maybe you're concerned that as your children get older they might ask difficult to answer questions?

We are offering a series of discussions over four weeks during Lent to help us all with the big faith questions.

The NUA programme is a series of 15 minute films. It is all about exploration, encouraging questions, acknowledging doubt and offering an engaging perspective on the Christian faith.

The format involves watching the first half of the film, having a discussion, watching the second part of the film, more discussion and then a cup of tea.

Where: In the Parish Centre (at the back of the church)

When: Thursday 7th, 14th 21st and 28th March at 7.30.

(If you can't make all four evenings, feel free to join in when you can)

Anyone interested should give their contact details to Colette or Kim in the office.

For more information contact Colette at 0858279433 or colette.kavanagh@dublindiocese.ie

What was Jesus really like?

How can you say that God is good when there is suffering in the world?

FAITHFEST FOR TEENAGERS

Join in on Friday 8th March for Faithfest from 6.00pm - 9.30pm. in Holy Cross College, Clonliffe Road, Dublin 3. Faithfest aims to create spaces where teenagers have an experience of a peer community, explore faith, and encounter an experience of welcoming, belonging, discipleship, worship and prayer in a creative and fun atmosphere. All welcome. For more information go to www.evangelisation.ie

MID-TERM BREAK

All parish schools will close for their mid-term break this week. We hope all the children will enjoy a lovely, safe week off school.
